

Safety in School Laboratories – 1 day course - Hamilton

Description

This one-day course provides the opportunity for Laboratory Managers, Science HODs, Science Teachers and Technicians to learn more about developing a culture of safety in their school science department and meeting the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 and the Health and Safety at Work (Hazardous Substances) Regulations 2017.

Content

The course will include the following:

- Roles and responsibilities under HSWA and Hazardous Substances Regulations
- Developing a culture of safety
- Knowledge and skills required by science teaching staff
- Induction of new science teaching staff
- Risk assessment
- Safe method of use
- Storage of hazardous substances
- Disposal of hazardous substances
- Inventory of hazardous substances
- Signage requirements.

Suitable for

- Laboratory Managers
- Science HODs
- Science Teachers
- Laboratory Technicians

Upcoming course

Date: Thursday 12 September 2019

Time: 8:45am registration for 9am start; 3:30pm finish

Venue: Berkley Normal Middle School, 26 Berkley Avenue, Hamilton

Cost

NZASE members: $225 + GST

Non NZASE members: $325 + GST

Registration

Register for the course here: <https://tinyurl.com/SafeLearning12September>

Invoices will be sent upon registration. Morning tea will be provided.

Please note that the course is limited to 30 attendees.

Contact: Sabina Cleary: sabina@kahaeducation.co.nz or Carmen Kenton: carmen@kahaeducation.co.nz

