

Workshop for Teachers / Leaders

Effective Teaching to Enable Pacific Success & Unpacking Tapasā.

Workshop Date: Monday, December 2nd 2019

9:15 am – 3 pm

Venue: Onehunga Community House, Room 7
83 Selwyn St, Onehunga, Auckland

Facilitators: Alana & William Madgwick
Educatalysts: Education Consultants

Cost: $295 (plus gst) lunch provided.
Group discount available.

To register: www.educatalysts.nz/workshops

Or email: alanamadgwick@gmail.com

Website: www.educatalysts.nz

Mobile: 022-3137220

Topics covered

Research into what works:

- What are the issues & what makes a difference?

Effective Teaching to Enable Pacific Success:

- Unpack Tapasā: cultural competencies framework for teachers of Pacific learners.
- What does this look like & how do you teach in this way?
- Learn practical strategies.

Special Guest Speakers: Pacific Young People

Educatalysts: Education for Change. Alana & William Madgwick bring a depth of experience to their work with schools. William has been a senior leader in several secondary schools & Alana facilitates professional learning with schools on a range of topics. Both are dedicated to improving the educational experiences of young people.

Previous participant feedback:

"The day was so powerful & provoked my thinking."
"It was a fabulous day. Thank you so much for your work."
"More teachers should come to this workshop."

