

CORE uLearn20

Pohewatia te āpōpō | Reimagine tomorrow

For the first time ever uLearn will be delivered online!

2 days | 2 themes | 4 keynotes | 8 activators

As a virtual education conference, uLearn20 is accessible to all, with the added bonus that you'll be able to dive into content until 18 December 2020!

- Contemporary virtual platform
- Live and on demand options
- Inspirational keynotes
- Engaging and challenging activators
- Local and global presenters
- Extensive range of workshops
- Customised professional learning development

Join us at uLearn20 - register now!

Standard

$200 +GST

Prices shown are in New Zealand Dollars.

Groups

$150 +GST per person
5+ group

*Groups must be from the same school, kura, centre, Kāhui Ako or organisation.

Be inspired by uLearn20 keynotes

Janelle Riki-Waaka

Janelle's career has been dedicated to improving the learning journey for all tamariki, with a particular focus on enhancing success for Māori learners. A Relationship Manager at CORE Education, Janelle's expertise includes; cultural capability, change leadership, evaluative capability, and stakeholder and community engagement for both English and Māori mediums.

Dr Lucy Hone

Lucy is a director of the New Zealand Institute of Wellbeing and Resilience, adjunct fellow at the University of Canterbury, a published academic researcher, best-selling author, and blogger for Psychology Today. Her research has been published within Aotearoa and worldwide.

Pedro Noguera

Pedro is the Emery Stoops and Joyce King Stoops Dean of the University of Southern California Rossier School of Education. A sociologist, his research focuses on the ways in which schools are influenced by social and economic conditions, as well as demographic trends in local, regional and global contexts.

Professor Peter O'Connor

Professor Peter O'Connor is the Director of the Centre for Arts and Social Transformation in the Faculty of Education and Social Work at the University of Auckland. Peter's work centres on the idea that the arts train the imagination. Imagining a better world is the first step in transforming it.

Dive deeper with uLearn20 activators.

Christine Te Kiri
Eruera Tarena

Karen O'Leary
Jason Tiatia

John Fenaughty
Melanie Taite-Pitama

Steve Mouldey
Taj Pabari

Pohewatia te angitu | Reimagine success Pohewatia te ako | Reimagine learning uLearn20's themes challenge us to think more broadly about success and creating equitable opportunities for all.

